Probe Reveals New Phase to Scholastic Controversy.

GEORGETOWN BACKS UP BYRD

South Atlantic A. A. U. Has Big Task on Hands to Straighten Out Present Tangle—Western Not to Run in Federal Meet—Gray and Meneffee Should Make Good.

By WILLIAM PEET.

Two days ago it looked very much as if Central High School would be forced to relinquish the silver cup trophy won by scoring the most points in the scholastic events in the George Washington meet last Saturday night, because the standing high jump was not on the programme, after it had been advertised, and the only three entries, according to claims made by Baltimore City College athletes, were from that school, as stated exclusively in The Washington Herald yesterday.

After considerable investigating, the writer learned that there were more than three entries in this event. Western High School was represented by Towle, who according to Coach Curley Byrd, was doing mighty good work in practice. Towle, a few days prior to the meet, received his entry blank from the George Washington management, and was notified that the standing high jump had been scratched. It is also supposed that the Baltimore City College athletes were notified in a similar manner, although they have made claims to the contrary.

The fact that Towle was entered adds entirely new phase to the matter, and it can be proven that the management of the meet called off the event Central's claims to the cup will not be disputed, and the A. A. U. can hardly take adverse action.

Like a moving-picture show, things are happening so rapidly in athletic circles that it is hard to keep up with them. The South Atlantic division of the Amateur Athletic Union finds itself with a gigantic task on its hands.

The Byrd case has stirred up Georgetown, where it is claimed the entire union will back up the athlete in his fight to be reinstated. Byrd's affidavits presented at the hearing before the registration committee in Baltimore Monday were from reputable men, and shifting off on another tack the A. A. U. questioned his college status. What if he does hold a scholarship at the West Side University. He is keeping up with the required work and is in good standing with the university authorities. Because he happens to be a fine athlete evidently stands in his own light, and the A. A. U. wants to bar him from further competition.

When it comes to a show-down, it's dollars to doughnuts that Byrd will run as a member of the Georgetown relay team against Virginia in the Hilltoppers' meet, whether he is barred by the Amateur Athletic Union or not, and he will also be allowed to play on the baseball team this spring. Georgetown University never has taken the Amateur Athletic Union seriously.

FRIENDS' SECOND TEAM WINS.

University School Basketball Five Downed, 17 to 11.

In a well-played basketball game, marked by splendid teamwork on the part of the Quakers, the Friends' School second team defeated the second quint representing the University School, yesterday, by 17 to 11. The game was interesting and evenly played throughout, the winners showing a better knowledge of the game which added much to the victory.

Waterspoon starred for the Quakers, shooting five goals in; while Maher and Manager Miller also did well.

Thompson played the best for the University, scoring two goals and a free throw. The line-up:

GRAY AND MENEFFEE OUT.

High School Stars Report with Georgetown Baseball Candidates.

Although yesterday afternoon was not a very auspicious initial practice for the battery candidates for the Georgetown baseball team, still Coach Grillo was in no way put out over the few reports, as he realizes that it is somewhat hard for the men to take to baseball as yet.

Jackey Taplin Fined.

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 10.—Jackey Taplin came under the displeasure of the stewards for his palpable rough riding in the running of the Fairfield Handicap. The clever rider brought his mount, Fort Johnson, home first, but on the journey kept bumping Silver Knight. Taplin made no effort to keep his horse straight and was fined $100. At the same time the stewards gave the first money to Silver Knight and placed Fort Johnson second.

ENTRIES POURING IN

Federal Games Break All Previous Records.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE ENTERS

Annapolis Stars to Take Part in the Various Events—Among Schoolboy Entries Are Teams from Mercersburg, Tome, Woodberry Forest, and Episcopal High School.

The list of entries for the Federal indoor games, to be held one week from tomorrow, is already as big as last year, and with the bunch which will be received through the mails to-day, it is expected that the total, when the preliminary entries to press, will exceed the record number of last year.

St. John's College, of Annapolis, and the Maryland Agricultural College were among the earliest of the collegiate institutions to enter their men yesterday. St. John's has entered Herman Galley, S. A. Brittain, C. H. Ruhl, and Ira Ryder as the members of its one-mile relay team, and Clifford L. Johnson, rated as a clever sprinter, will start in the fifty-yard dash tomorrow, with W. B. Woodward in the two-mile run. The latter is a new man in distance running, but proved his class in the one-mile run at the George Washington games, when he ran second to Lee, of Johns Hopkins.

Woodberry Forest in Line.

Woodberry Forest School expects to score heavily with B. A. Vandiver in the intercollegiate two-mile run; F. L. Fuller, Jr., in the scholastic 50-yard dash and 300-yard open; W. N. Harris in the open and novice scholastic sprints and scholastic hurdle; Hugh Benet in the scholastic hurdle, high jump, and 600-yard run; M. F. White in the scholastic sprints and 300-yard run, and with Anderson, Carter, Brulan, Willis, and Grangeon on the junior relay team, which has been classed with the Episcopal High School, Cathedral School, and Rockville Academy. The Tome School, of Port Deposit, will be represented in indoor competition in Washington for the first time this season in the Federal games by some high school scholastic performers. Archer Smith, one of the best scholastic athletes in this section, has been entered in five events, including the scholastic 50-yard dash and 300-yard run, 12-pound shot-put, standing broad jump, and 50-yard open handicap. Smith has a record of 42 feet 8 inches in the shot-put, and won the Middle Atlantic 200-yard scholastic championship in Philadelphia last May. E. A. Ogde, who has been entered from the Port Deposit school in both the open handicap and scholastic hurdles, is one of the most promising young timber tappers in the Southern schools. He was placed in the national intercollegiate championships last May, doing a trifle better than 17 seconds for the 120-yard hurdles.

Fast Man in Sprints.

Ehon Foster, who will represent Tome in both scholastic sprints, is next to Smith, the best short-distance runner in the school, and A. J. Carter, Jr., who will be in the junior 50-yard dash and junior 300-yard run, is a corking good youngster.

The National Cathedral School has sixteen boys in the individual events and two relay teams, and Mercersburg will send down a baker's dozen for the individual events, with a rattling good one-mile relay team, which will run against the Episcopal High School on the evening programme.

Moran and Murphy Matched.

New York, Feb. 10.—Owen Moran, the English pugilist, and Harlan Tommy Murphy have been matched to fight twenty rounds at Colma, Cal., under the supervision of James Coffroth, on February 23. They will weigh 133 pounds probably three hours before ring time, and will receive a percentage of the receipts.

Marshall Wins.

New York, Feb. 10.—Frank A. Marshall wound up his series of games with Herbert Rosenfeld at the rooms of the Manhattan Chess Club by winning the seventh game, a double-Roy Lopez, after thirty moves. Marshall emerged winner of the contest with a score of 54 to 14.

Laughing at Tex Rickard.

Tex Rickard evidently realizes by this time that Gov. Spry, of Utah, really means what he says. Rickard, in the face of certain interference, insisted that Salt Lake City would be the place for the Jeffries-Johnson fight until he got a tip direct from Utah's chief executive.

Now, Tex is the laughing stock of the sporting public all over the United States.

Promoters Gleason and Coffroth will soon eliminate him from the situation, too.

"SPITBALL" IS DOOMED

SAYS BIG CY YOUNG

You have Cy Young's word for it that the spitball has seen its last season. The grand old man of the box, in his forty-fourth year and about his twenty-fifth as a premier pitcher, ought to be entitled to an opinion, and he says that the game with the spitball is a back number, because batters have come to know that he hasn't anything else, or he would not resort to that artifice. The spitball never was more than a temporary expedient, and baseball would have been richer to-day had it never been invented. Many a good man has gone wrong because of it.

OFF SEASON BASEBALL.

Chattanooga has a player named Basket. Ought to be a pretty sure performer in the outfield.

THE SPRINGFIELD, ILL., CLUB HAS RECEIVED $12,000 FOR PLAYERS SOLD TO THE MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS THIS WINTER. QUITE A BUNCH FOR ONE CLUB TO MAKE.

About five exhibition games have been arranged by the St. Louis Browns for their preliminary season. The games will be divided between the two squads.

ROBERT BRENNAN AND HIS SQUAD OF SEVENTEN PITCHERS WILL LEAVE FOR LITTLE ROCK ON MARCH 1. BRENNAN EXPECTS THE CARDINALS TO FINISH HIGH THE ENSUING SEASON.

None of the big teams seems to want Danzig, the fellow who was farmed out by the Boston Reds. Yet he led the New England League with a record of 245.

Jaakey Atz, of the White Sox, is playing winter baseball with an independent club in New Orleans. Atz will hate to see this money taken away from him next winter by the new contract.

The Boston Red Sox have offered the Harvard University nine a date at Boston on April 12. A change has been made by the Sox, in which they will play at Canton instead of Newark on April 2.

Eddie Foster, the Jersey City shortstop, who made such an excellent showing in his first year as an Eastern Leaguer, has sent his signed contract to the New York American League club.

The season of junketing to Cuba is about over, and nearly all the American players have returned. As the Cubans have a big majority of the games with the Gringos, the people of the Isle are now proud and cheery.

The Cleveland management is hot on the trail of a good outpaw to twirl the coming season. The Naps have had such stars as Young, Joss, Moore, and Bernhard, but to date have not got their hands on a good post-date expert.

"All batters are suckers as far as the 'spitball' goes," announces Frank Smith, the White Sox's big heater. "Make a sign to spit on the ball and there isn't a batter that won't expect a spit. And then shoot over a high fast one, and it's a pipe to get a called strike," adds Smith.

SPORTING SIDELIGHTS

By BILL BAILEY.

The A. A. U. hereabouts has been slumbering long enough. It's about time something happened—and it's happening now, all right.

Mrs. Waddell gets a divorce from "Rube" and $1,500. There are many in Philadelphia (not of the female sex) who would like to collect a few loans as easily. "Rube" had the "touch" game down to a science.

One of the bush leagues out West has signed a deaf and dumb umpire. Not so bad when one remembers a few big league arbiters who are blind.

There is a wrestler named Spiro in town, with real money, who thinks he can make Joe Turner look like a bum amateur. Turner's manager can find out all about him by calling on Bill Bailey, at The Washington Herald.

Don't know where the New York Mail listed this, but it has a familiar ring. Listen: "Bugs" Raymond was discussing the Kling case in a barroom in Texas a few days ago. "Kling will soon find out his status quo," chirped one of the party. "Say, Mr. Bartender, I think I will try one of those things, too," spoke up Raymond.

The A. A. U. had best close up the Byrd case at once, and reinstate the athlete.

Jack Johnson simply can't keep out of trouble, for between his automobile and bulldog he is kept busy saying "Good morning, judge."

Gaitersburg seems to be a nice sort of a place for our basket-ball teams to visit. Every aggregation from Washington thus far has trimmed the Marylanders on their own floor.

Will Johnny Kling pay that $1,000 fine? He will not.

GOLF AT PINEHURST.

J. P. Gardner Beaten in Morning Round by Snare.

Pinehurst, N. C., Feb. 10.—Easy matches in the morning and keen play in the afternoon, resulted in to-day's first and second match play rounds of the sixth annual St. Valentine's Golf tournament, in which W. J. Travis of Garden City, H. W. Perin, of the Merton Cricket Club; Henry C. Fowles, of Oakmont, and J. D. Foot, of Apawamist, are the survivors. Tomorrow Mr. Travis meets Mr. Perin and Mr. Fowles play Mr. Foot.

The surprise of the day was the defeat of J. P. Gardner, of Middleham, who won the qualification gold medal yesterday from Walter J. Travis, by Mr. Snare in the morning round.

CORCORANS TRIM FORT MYER.

Cuvillier Throws Nineteen Baskets for Winners, Score, 46 to 9.

Company E, or the Corcoran Cadets, the leaders of the District Military League, defeated the Fort Myer Y. M. C. A. basketball quintet by 46 to 9 in a one-sided, but clean basket-ball game last night, played under the A. A. U. rules in the National Guard gymnasium.

It was the opinion, before the game, that the Fort Myer boys would put up a good exhibition, but they showed lack of practice and the Corcorans toyed with them all through the game.

Company E deserves to win as they are all hard workers and practice nearly every night.

Company G is in second place in the league, and only one game behind the leaders, and are putting up a hot fight for the championship honors.

Cuvillier threw nineteen baskets, making a record for this season on the National Guard floor.

Burnell and Hogan who scored three points for Fort Myer in the first-half, were the only scorers for their team.

Line-up:

Company E. Fort Myer.

Hutton McDonald.....right forward.....O'Brien

Goals from Cuvillier, B. McDonald, 2; Ross, 2; Foster, 2; Burnell, 1. Goals from free throw, 3. Referee—Mr. Ross. Time and scorekeeper—Johnson. Length of halves, 15 minutes.

P. B. & Co. Outfitters

To say that Parker, Bridget & Co. have never offered such values before is simply a statement of fact. The carpenters and painters are pushing us hard, and we have got to let the goods go for whatever they will bring. The prices will not be an obstacle.

One-third to One-half Off Regular Prices will make things move to-day.

And these are all "P. B." quality Overcoats and Suits. Please remember that.
